

THE BUTCHER'S CALL

As the Butcher's Nails bite deeper, pain swells beyond thought and drowns what remains of reason. Each surge of agony strips away restraint, memory, and doubt, leaving only motion and need. In that rising torment, something vast presses closer, carried on the rhythm of blood and impact. The World Eaters do not seek this presence, yet they become dependant on it. With every intensifying spike of suffering, the god of slaughter grows clearer. Khorne is heard only when the Nails are loud enough.

DETACHMENT RULE

AND WE ANSWER

Destruction above all, no wall shall stand against these heretics and traitors.

In your Command phase, select any number of WORLD EATER units from your army. Those units hear the call of the Butcher's Nails until the end of the battle.

A unit that hears the call of the Butcher's Nails reduces its OC characteristic to 0 and is eligible to charge in a turn in which it made an Advance move. Improve the Attacks characteristic of melee weapons equipped by models in a unit that heard the call of the Butcher's Nails by 1. A unit that has heard the call of the Butcher's Nails is not eligible to make Fall Back moves.

DESIGNER'S COMMENTARY: In a strictly technical sense, hear/hears/heard should be replaced with; has/have the keyword where appropriate.
